

Cookie policy – Praktijk Rozendaal-Doest

This is the Cookie Policy of Praktijk Rozendaal-Doest (hereinafter referred to as “Praktijk Rozendaal-Doest”), registered with the Dutch Chamber of Commerce under number 76699285. Praktijk Rozendaal-Doest can be contacted at oc.rozendaal@gmail.com.

This Cookie Policy explains how cookies are used, and how data is shared and protected in relation to the website www.psycholoogrozendaal.nl (the “Website”). The placement of cookies and the processing of personal data are carried out in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the Dutch Telecommunications Act, and other applicable privacy laws.

What are cookies?

Cookies are simple text files that are stored on your computer, tablet, or phone when you visit the Website. Cookies cannot damage your device. The stored information can be sent back to the server during your next visit. Cookies are necessary to provide you with a pleasant user experience on the Website.

Functional cookies

Functional cookies are essential for the proper functioning of the Website. Without these cookies, the Website cannot operate optimally. These cookies cannot be disabled. There is a distinction between session cookies (deleted after you leave the site) and persistent cookies (stored to prevent repeated actions, such as re-entering data or reselecting preferences). Data collected through these cookies is not shared with third parties.

Analytical cookies

Analytical cookies help improve the Website by providing insights into its usage, such as search queries, page load times, and click behaviour. Some analytical cookies may be placed without consent; others require explicit permission.

Google Analytics: The Website uses Google Analytics to monitor and report on visitor interactions. A persistent cookie is placed to identify the web browser. Only data that may be shared under the GDPR is provided to Google. No consent has been given for Google to share this data with third parties. IP addresses are anonymised. Google may be required by law to provide data to third parties.

Social media cookies

The Website may contain buttons from social networks such as Facebook or Twitter. These work through code from the social media companies themselves, which can place cookies. Please refer to the privacy policies of these companies for more information.

Rights of data subjects

To request access to, correction of, deletion of, or the transfer of your personal data, contact oc.rozendaal@gmail.com or send a letter to:

Praktijk Rozendaal-Doest
Keurenplein 41 - Box D9494
1069 CD Amsterdam
The Netherlands

Note: this is a correspondence address only, not a visiting address.

Unforeseen cookies

While every effort is made to maintain a complete overview of cookies used on the Website, it is possible that third parties may place cookies, for example through embedded content. If you encounter a cookie not listed in this policy, please report it to oc.rozendaal@gmail.com.

Security

Praktijk Rozendaal-Doest has implemented appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect personal data against loss or unlawful processing. Security measures include, for example, the use of unique passwords. However, no absolute guarantee can be given that information will not be accessed, altered, or destroyed without authorisation.

Sharing of information

Data from functional cookies is not shared with third parties. Data from analytical cookies is only shared when anonymised or with explicit consent. Data from tracking cookies is only shared with third parties when consent has been given.

Children

The Website does not knowingly place cookies on devices used by persons under the age of 16. If it becomes apparent that personal data has been collected from children without parental consent, this data will be deleted.

Change of control

If Praktijk Rozendaal-Doest (or part of it) is sold, transferred, or merged, data collected via the Website may be among the transferred assets. The acquiring party must comply with this Cookie Policy.

Changes

This Cookie Policy may be updated from time to time. The latest version will always be published on the Website.
